Prayer

We continue to hold in prayer and love all in need of healing this week. We pray particularly for: Bev & Wes Campbell, Ian & Alleyne Hockley, Helen & Ron Johnston, Lyn & Terry McCredden and their family, Fay & Terry White, Ann Ferguson, Heather and the Mansell family.

Thanksgiving at Yandoit

Join a community thanksgiving afternoon tea celebrating the lives and contributions of Don & Joan Morrison. Share memories and stories of these two special people. Yandoit Hall, Sunday 14 July, 2pm. Please bring a plate to share.

Comms for emergencies

The Bendigo Amateur Radio and Electronics Club (BAREC) hosts a talk about BAREC's Regional Emergency Readiness Plan in the Loddon-Campaspe, the vulnerability of public communication networks when there are bushfires or other emergencies and accessible technologies for communities to help themselves. At the First Castlemaine Scout Hall, 16 Reckleben Street, Castlemaine, on Friday 19 July, 7.30pm.

Explorers book club

Explorers: Theological Book Club is on every second and fourth Thursday. Next one is on Thursday 25 July. At Castlemaine Chapel. For anyone interested in going deeper – theologically, poetically, scripturally. We examine two texts: one biblical, another from literature. This is a place to grapple with the questions that sustain, challenge and fuel us. RSVP to Sarah as the venue might change!

Don Mansell memorial

Memorial service celebrating the life of Don Mansell. Castlemaine Church, Fri 19 July, 2pm.

Margot Foley would appreciate the help of a few people to serve the afternoon tea. Please see Margot this Sunday, or phone 5472 4604.

Tiny wonders

Every day, we walk through another world hidden from our naked eye. A tiny world, on a scale of millimetres, best seen through a macrophotographer's lens.

Join Newstead Landcare for a glimpse into this secret world, guided by Strangways photographer Patrick Kavanagh. Newstead Community Centre, Tuesday 16 July, 7.30pm. Entry by gold coin donation. All welcome.
