Afternoon tea for Ruby

A celebration and thanksgiving afternoon tea for Ruby Goldsmith will be held for family and friends next Saturday in the Castlemaine Church Hall. Saturday 12 October, 1-3pm.

Friday peace vigil

Since 7 October last year, we've been meeting each Friday at 5pm to seek solace, find space for our grief and pray for peace. This is an open, ecumenical time, attended by people of different faith traditions. A year has passed and the conflict in the middle east has only worsened. Other parts of the world are also suffering through war and conflict. This is a gentle reminder for anyone who may feel a need to come. We meet at the Anglican Church's labyrinth at 5pm.

A joint Anglican and Uniting Church initiative.

Concert at Harcourt

... All manner of thing shall be well (Julian of Norwich)

A concert in aid of Asylum Seekers Welcome Centre. Sit back and soak up the tones and harmonies and the whimsical stories from our talented performers. Enjoy afternoon tea and a chat with people you may not have met before.

At Harcourt Church (NB no wheelchair access at present), Sunday 13 October, 2.30pm.
